

DAEMA SCHOLARS PROGRAM APPLICATION

The DAEMA Scholars Program offers a limited number of current Dartmouth students a comprehensive ten-week introduction to the film and television industry, including an internship, seminar, and events to help students make the most of their time in Los Angeles and to launch their careers in Hollywood. Successful applicants will demonstrate a history of academic success, artistic or other relevant skills, and a committed interest to working in the industry.

Admitted students are expected to intern 25-40 hours per week and to attend all events.

Application Check List:

- $35 application fee (payable via PayPal.com)
- Completed information sheet
- Resume, including any relevant coursework and work experience
- Academic transcript
- Personal statement describing your interest in the program and your aspirations for a career and what you hope to get from the program
- Photograph of you
- Letter of recommendation (optional)
- Portfolio of work (optional)
